

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy law protections. The Indiana Telephone Privacy Law has timproved my time at home. I used to recieve 5-20 calls in any evening. I can now eat dinner without being interrupted. The same companies used to call all the time even when I used to tell them not to ever call back.